

International Center Training Facility Survey

The Internet has virtually eliminated the need for travel to sales meetings and/or training sessions. With high definition video conferencing, each party involved has the ability to interact with one another anywhere in the world, one-on-one or one-to-many.

While the International Center currently is not set-up with video conferencing, your input will help us decide what level of investments to make.

1. Do you have need for video conferencing on a large screen?  Yes  No

Where you can see a remote presenter only?  Yes  No

Where the remote location can see you?  Yes  No

2. If you do video conferencing, do you ever host (or see the need for hosting in the future) a session where you would connect via video conferencing to 1 or more remote locations?  Yes  No

If yes, how many remote locations at one time? _____

3. During conferences or training, do you ever require break-out rooms?  Yes  No

If yes, how many at any one time? _____

4. Additional comments or thoughts would be appreciated:
